Northwestern Administrative Systems Project Categorization

Expand existing business capabilities within the current technology landscape

- Increase functionality in the business capability within existing applications
- Mature pilot or prototypes into production ready capabilities

DIFFERENTIATE

- Maintain current business capabilities and technology landscape
- Operational activities including upgrades, regular maintenance and patches
- Minor functionality may be added to/removed from existing applications

- Develops new business capabilities and fundamentally expands the technology landscape (new application or new functionality in existing application)
- May include a pilot, prototype, or interim solution
- Project may be a discovery/analysis effort

INNOVATE

- Expand the technology landscape to support current business capabilities
- Investments in new systems or new modules to increase functionality in the business capability
- Maturing of pilot or prototypes into production ready capabilities

DIFFERENTIATE

