Don’t lose vital data if disaster strikes!

Make computer backups a regular part of your routine in case of a computer virus or accidental damage.

TIP: Don’t rely on your computer’s “System Restore” function. Back up regularly to an external hard drive or a Web-based service.

TIP: Keep backups electronically and physically secure. Encrypt sensitive data and store backups in a safe location away from your main computer.

Learn more about backing up your computer at: www.it.northwestern.edu/security/backup/

View the latest “You’re the Key” flyer and archives at: www.it.northwestern.edu/security/flyer

Subscribe to the NUIT News RSS feed to be notified of future “You’re the Key” flyers at: www.it.northwestern.edu/nuitfeed.xml

Attend the next Computer Security Tech Talks on April 21 and May 6! Read event descriptions and register online at: www.it.northwestern.edu/learning/techtalks