The Main Library building will be closed December 26 - 28, due to an update of the building's heating and cooling system. Deering Library and Seeley G. Mudd Library will be open from 8:30 am - 5 pm on these days. Materials from the collections housed in Main Library can be requested in person or online: www.library.northwestern.edu/services/circulation-basics/recalls-and-requests

In addition to this closure, the Main Library will be closed for the University holidays December 22 - 25, and December 29 - January 1. Please note that study carrels will not be accessible December 22 - January 1. The library will resume regular intersession hours on Wednesday, January 2.
