Date: September 30, 2005 2:43:09 PM CDT

You are receiving this message because you have been identified as a department or account contact for billing reports. Northwestern University Information Technology (NUIT) is beginning the process of generating your September 2005 billing reports this afternoon (Friday, September 30), using the new CONDUITS Online (NUIT's Customer-Oriented Network Delivering University Information Technology Services) billing retrieval system. You should expect to receive your reports via e-mail by Monday morning, October 3.

You may visit <http://www.it.northwestern.edu/conduits> to learn more about CONDUITS Online at Northwestern University.

More information about the new CONDUITS Online billing reports is also available online at http://www.it.northwestern.edu/transitions/2005/conduits_billing.html.

Questions should be directed to consulting-services@northwestern.edu.
