The following phishing email was received by members of the Northwestern community on or around June 15, 2020 appearing to be a follow up to a work from home opportunity. DO NOT click on any links or open any attachments and DO NOT respond to this email or any email you suspect is a phishing attempt. As a reminder, Northwestern University will never ask for personally identifiable information.

Please check out the How to Identify a Fraudulent Email Scam video on the NUIT Communications YouTube Channel for more information on how to spot phishing email scams.

-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

From: ...@northwestern.edu (name intentionally removed by Northwestern IT)

Sent: Monday, June 15, 2020 05:19:18 -0700 (PDT)

To: ...2020@u.northwestern.edu (name intentionally removed by Northwestern IT)

Subject: Follow Up

If you're interested in working remotely from home as a temporary (student) research aide due to the recent COVID-19 outbreak and earn $250 weekly, indicate interest by providing the required information below and I will send you a follow up email with detailed requirement.

This is an adaptable job that requires little to no prior experience irrespective of your major discipline

Full Name:

Cell #:

Alternate email:

Regards

(name intentionally removed by Northwestern IT)

Professor of ...