FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NUIT ADDS WIRELESS ACCESS POINTS ON EVANSTON, CHICAGO CAMPUSES

Northwestern University Information Technology (NUIT) has recently completed the installation of new wireless access points on both University campuses, bringing the total number of wireless access points at Northwestern to over 100.

The new locations include:

Evanston
- 1835 Hinman cafe
- Allison Hall cafe
- Ayers College of Commerce & Industry, seminar room 1
- Elder Hall basement study lounge
- Harris Hall basement
- Kemper Hall, seminar room 1
- Norris University Center, east lawn
- Shepard Residential College, 1st floor study room

Chicago
- Technological Institute, C135, C230, C237
- University Hall, 1st floor
- Willard Residential College cafe
- Levy Meyer 124
- Morton Medical Research Building, Galter Health Sciences Library, 2nd floor east and 2nd floor west
- Arthur Rubloff Building, outside room 281
- Tarry Building 1-701

For a list of NU’s public wireless access points, visit http://www.tss.northwestern.edu/wireless/locations.html.

Details about NU’s wireless networks, including user documentation, can be found at http://www.tss.northwestern.edu/wireless/.

#####